DONATIONS FOR THE FAMILY OF KCKPD CAPTAIN MELTON ACCEPTED AT PRICE CHOPPER

PRAIRIE VILLAGE, Kan. – In response to the news out of Kansas City, Kan. yesterday, Price Chopper will be collecting donations to help support the family of Captain Robert “Dave” Melton after his untimely death. All 52 area Price Choppers will be able to accept donations by 5 p.m. today, Wednesday, July 20.

“We can only imagine the heartache that the Kansas City, Kansas Police Department and all those who knew Captain Melton are going through,” said Casie Broker, Director of Marketing, Price Chopper. “It’s our honor to collect donations to support Captain Melton’s family following their loss.”

All donations will go to benefit Captain Melton’s family. Donations will be collected now through next Wednesday, July 27.
