PRICE CHOPPER TO ACCEPT DONATIONS FOR THE FAMILY OF JOCO SHERIFF'S DEPUTY COLLINS

PRAIRIE VILLAGE, Kan. – In response to the news out of Johnson County on Sunday, Price Chopper will collect donations to help support the family of Master Deputy Brandon Collins after his untimely death. All 51 area Price Choppers will begin accepting donations on Thursday, September 15.

“Our hearts go out to the family and friends of Master Deputy Brandon Collins as well as to the Johnson County Sheriff’s Department, which has lost a respected team member,” said Casie Broker, Director of Marketing, Price Chopper. “It’s our honor to collect donations to support the family of Deputy Collins following their loss.”

All donations will benefit the family of Deputy Collins. Donations will be collected tomorrow through Thursday, September 22.
